Suitable for ages 2+, this charming picture book introduces kids to the complexities of families after divorce and explores the complexities of family and the power of love.

When a young child's father leaves to serve in the military, they're left with a lot of questions. Why is Daddy leaving? When will he be back? Will he still love me?

This book provides a gentle and reassuring answer to these questions, explaining that even though families may change, love remains constant. With simple, easy-to-understand language and beautiful illustrations, this book helps children cope with the challenges of divorce and military deployment and empowers them to understand that they are loved unconditionally.

Daddy Left With Mr Army is a must-have for any family dealing with divorce or military deployment. It's a powerful reminder that love is always present, no matter what.
