The Straits Course was designed by Pete Dye and opened in 1998. The course is known for its challenging layout, which features narrow fairways, deep bunkers, and large greens.

The Straits Course has hosted several major championships, including the PGA Championship in 2004, 2010, and 2015. The course will also host the Ryder Cup in 2020.

If you're planning a golf trip to Eastern Wisconsin, be sure to add Golf Whistling Straits: The Straits Course to your itinerary. You won't be disappointed.

What to Expect at Golf Whistling Straits: The Straits Course

When you play Golf Whistling Straits: The Straits Course, you can expect to experience a challenging and rewarding round of golf.

The course is laid out on a narrow strip of land between Lake Michigan and the Kohler-Andrae State Park. This unique setting provides for some of the most stunning views in golf.

The Straits Course is also known for its challenging layout. The fairways are narrow and the greens are large and undulating. There are also plenty of bunkers and water hazards to contend with.

Despite the challenges, The Straits Course is a fair test of golf. If you play well, you'll be rewarded with a great score.

Tips for Playing Golf Whistling Straits: The Straits Course

If you're planning to play Golf Whistling Straits: The Straits Course, here are a few tips to help you make the most of your experience:

- Book your tee time early. The Straits Course is a popular course, so it's important to book your tee time as early as possible.
- Arrive early. This will give you time to warm up and get a feel for the course.

- Play from the appropriate tees. Don't try to play from the back tees if you're not up to the challenge. There are five sets of tees to choose from, so find the ones that are right for your skill level.
- Be prepared for the wind. The Straits Course is located on the shore of Lake Michigan, so the wind can be a factor. Be sure to bring a windbreaker or jacket.
- Don't get discouraged. The Straits Course is a challenging course, but it's also a fair one. If you play well, you'll be rewarded with a great score.

Other Things to Do in Eastern Wisconsin
