Meet the Poetic Masterminds

The Trio

We love but once. The great gold orb of light
From dawn to evening doth cast his ray;
But the full splendour of his perfect might
Is leached but once throughout the live-long day.

We love but once. The waves, with ceaseless motion,
Do day and night splash on the pebbled shore;
But the strong tide of the resistless ocean
Sweeps in but one hour of the twenty-four.

We love but once. A score of times, perchance,
We may be moved in fancy's fleeting fashion;
May treasure up a word, a tone, a glance,
But fully once we feel the soul's great passion.

We love but once. Love walks with death and birth
(The saddest, the unkindest of the three);
And only once while we sojourn on earth
Can that strange trio come to you or me.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Poems About Love

*If I'd never met you,
I wouldn't feel the pain
Of losing your sweet love;
I wouldn't feel insane.*

*But if I'd never met you,
I wouldn't know the pleasure
Of ecstasy's warm gifts
And memories to treasure.*

*Now moving on with life,
I force a wistful grin,
Questioning what went wrong,
Wondering what might have been.*
