When Sarah and her husband move into their new home, they are immediately drawn to the mysterious house next door. The house is old and dilapidated, and it seems to be abandoned. But Sarah can't shake the feeling that there is something strange about it. One night, she sees a light in the window of the house, and she decides to investigate.

What Sarah finds inside the house will change her life forever. She discovers a dark secret that has been hidden for years, and she soon realizes that she is in danger. The house next door is not what it seems, and Sarah must fight for her life to escape.

The Moon At Noon: The House Next Door is a masterfully crafted thriller that will keep you guessing until the very end. Sarah's journey is both terrifying and exhilarating, and you will be rooting for her every step of the way. If you are a fan of psychological thrillers, then you will not want to miss this book.
