- Lady Alix de Valois: A young woman of noble birth, Alix yearns for a life beyond the confines of her gilded cage. Drawn into the allure of the Magic Club, she discovers a hidden world teeming with possibilities.
- Professor Damian: A brilliant scholar and master illusionist, Damian serves as the enigmatic leader of the Magic Club. His knowledge of the arcane arts is vast, and his motives remain shrouded in mystery.
- Dr. Gérard: A renowned scientist and skeptic, Gérard is initially dismissive of the Magic Club's supernatural claims. However, as he becomes entangled in their enigmatic world, his beliefs are put to the test.

Lesueur masterfully blurs the lines between reality and imagination, weaving a narrative tapestry that captivates and enthralls. The members of the Magic Club possess extraordinary abilities that defy scientific explanation: telepathy, telekinesis, and the power to manipulate the fabric of time and space.

Through their interactions, the characters explore the nature of belief and the limits of human understanding. Are the supernatural phenomena they witness genuine manifestations of otherworldly forces, or merely elaborate illusions crafted by the power of suggestion?

"The Magic Club" is not merely a tale of fantasy and the supernatural; it is a profound meditation on the human condition. Lesueur delves into the themes of identity, free will, and the pursuit of knowledge.

As the characters navigate the labyrinthine world of the Magic Club, they face moral dilemmas and grapple with the consequences of their choices. The novel's suspenseful plot keeps readers on the edge of their seats, eager to unravel the mysteries that lie at its heart.
